READINGS FOR 4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER
First Reading: After their 'confirmation' at Pentecost Peter and companions emerged from behind locked doors, to talk to the throngs of people, gathered for the Jewish feast. They 'hit the ground running.' Peter recapitulated what his hearers had done to Jesus, and how God had made him "Lord and Christ." "You must repent…… and be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins". The results were dramatic.
Second Reading: The dominating theme is the fortitude of the innocent person, for which Jesus himself is the model. It is moving to read St Peter's address when we remember that he himself was martyred in either 64 or 67, crucified upside down. We die with Jesus (to our faults) in baptism and rise with Jesus to 'live for holiness.' We can rely on him as "the true shepherd and guardian of our souls."
Gospel: False shepherds are like thieves and highway men, betraying the sheep and abandoning them just when they are most needed. The true shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. They know his voice as he calls each one of them by name out of darkness, "one by one," to lead them to green pastures.'

Your Eircode is essential for identifying your location quickly and accurately, especially in situations where time matters. Whether it's for routine coordination or an emergency, having your Eircode at your fingertips can make all the difference.
