The above painting can be found in the National Gallery of Ireland in Dublin. It is entitled "Kitchen Maid with the Supper at Emmaus" by Diego Velázquez (1599-1660). We have this wonderful story in today's Gospel (Luke 24:13-35) of the two disciples journeying with Jesus the seven miles out of Jerusalem to the town of Emmaus. They only recognise Jesus, when he sat at table with them "he took the bread and said the blessing, then he broke it and handed it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognised him; but he had vanished from their sight" (Luke 24:30)

The Servant Girl at Emmaus

She listens, listens, holding her breath. Surely that voice is his—the one
who had looked at her, once, across the crowd,
as no one ever had looked?
Had he seen her? Had spoken as if to her?
Surely those hands were his,
taking the platter of bread from hers just now?
Hands he'd laid on the dying and made them well?
Surely that face—?
The man they'd crucified for sedition and blasphemy.
The man whose body disappeared from its tomb.
The man it was rumoured now some women had seen this morning, alive?
Those who had brought this stranger home to their table
don't recognise yet with whom they sit.
But she in the kitchen, absently touching the wine jug she's to take in,
a young Black servant intently listening,
swings round and sees
the light around him
and is sure. (Poem by Denise Levertov (1923–1997))

Pilgrimage to Fatima and Estoril 13th June - 20th June 2026 from Dublin

Marian Pilgrimages, Dublin: 018788159, Belfast: 02895 80005
38 – 39 Pearse Street Dublin 2. Why June 13th is so special? It commemorates the second apparition of Our Lady in 1917. On that day, in the simple fields of the Cova da Iria, Our Lady appeared again to the children, encouraging them to continue praying the Rosary and to offer sacrifices for the conversion of sinners. She revealed her Immaculate Heart and promised that those devoted to it would receive special graces.
