SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER— I Will not leave you orphans

Jesus speaks tenderly to His disciples as they face the uncertainty of His approaching death. His words are both a comfort and a challenge. "If you love me, keep my commandments," He says, reminding us that faith is not simply about words or feelings, but about the daily practice of love, mercy, forgiveness, and trust. Christian discipleship is lived out in ordinary acts of faithfulness and love for one another especially when life is difficult or uncertain.

Jesus also promises that His followers will never be abandoned. He speaks of the coming of the Holy Spirit, the "Helper" or "Advocate," who will remain with His people forever. The disciples feared being left alone, yet Jesus reassures them: "I will not leave you orphaned." These words continue to speak powerfully to the Church today. In times of anxiety, grief, loneliness, or confusion, we are reminded that God's presence is not distant. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ remains close to His people, guiding, strengthening, and comforting us in every season of life.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE DIOCESAN PRIESTHOOD In our first reading this weekend we hear about the people of Samaria receiving the Holy Spirit. As we approach Pentecost we pray for a fresh and powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Church, on the world, on our country, on our parish communities, and on each one of us. May the Spirit fill the hearts and minds of deacons, seminarians, and all those discerning a vocation to the diocesan priesthood, and may many more hear and follow the call to serve the Church as priests.
