KNOW YOUR EIRCODE– IT MATTERS On behalf of Buncrana First Responders: In our community, safety and coordination depend on clear communication. One of the simplest yet most important things you can do is make sure you know your Eircode. Your Eircode is essential for identifying your location quickly and accurately, especially in situations where time matters. Whether it's for routine coordination or an emergency, having your Eircode at your fingertips can make all the difference. Take a moment today to learn it, save it, and share it with those around you. A small step like this helps keep everyone informed, connected, and safe. Stay aware. Stay prepared. Know your Eircode.

PRIVACY NOTICE: The Diocese of Derry complies with GDPR regulations. A Privacy Notice is available on the Parish Website or by contacting The Parish Office. Live stream and recordings of Mass and Services in St Mura's Church and St Aengus' are available online. Parishioners should note that the first two rows of seats are visible online for both Churches.

Congratulations to Shauna McGarrigle and Gavin Hamilton and who were married in St Aengus' Church, Burt

DEATH
Your prayers are asked for David Greene, Grange, Inch Island who died recently and for his family and friends saddened by their loss.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
Our first reading tells the story of the selection of the first seven deacons. We pray for those recently, or soon to be, ordained to the Diaconate. Here in the Diocese of Derry we pray God's blessing on Deacon Stephen Baxter who will be ordained to the priesthood on 14 June, that the Lord will bless him in his future ministry.

SAVE THE DATE
FATHER BRADLEY'S 30TH ANNIVERARY 2026
Father Bradley marks thirty years as a priest this year. He was one of the three priests ordained in St Eugene's Cathedral, Derry, in 1996. Particularly because it was not possible to celebrate his Silver Anniversary in 2021 when we were under Covid lockdown, the parishes will mark this moment on Sunday 28 June 2026 with Mass at 3pm in St Mary's Church, Cockhill, in the presence of Bishop McKeown, followed by a gathering in the Inishowen Gateway Hotel. All will be welcome. More details will follow.
