Our Royal Priesthood

Jesus said: I am the way, the truth and the life. Because these words are so familiar to us, we can easily hear them and move on. What do they mean? Jesus is the way, first of all, to the true God. We can easily reduce God to our own size, into proportions that we can manage. Jesus constantly lifts us out into the vastness of God where we are out of control. He also is the way to the full mystery of ourselves made in the image of God because there too we tend to reduce each other and ourselves down to size. Jesus is the truth about God who loves us with an infinite and passionate love. God adores us like a parent in the presence of a newborn baby. And he is the life. He teaches us that the only true human way of living is the way of love the love of God and of each other. This has huge implications for us in our homes and in our faith community.

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.
